

Romerike International School

Parent Survey (2022-2025)

The number of participants:

2022	92
2023	73
2024	73
2025	90
Total	328

Averages by statements

In 2025, every statement has a higher average score than the total.

Compare to 2024;

«The school is able to help my child solve problems» stays the same.

«As a parent, I am able to access my child's learning through Toddle» has a big leap.

Averages by years

The order of the statements in terms of average scores remains consistent over the four years. The highest score is found in the statement «I would recommend the school to other parents,» representing the school's steady success.

Differences compare to Total (averages)

- There are positive improvements in all statements in 2025, with biggest leap in «As a parent, I am able to access my child's learning through Toddle».
- However, do not neglect these points, «My child feel emotionally safe whilst at school», and «The school is able to help my child solve problems», which have a small increase.

Groups' averages by years

Recommendation score is 0.15 higher in 2025.

+0,05 The School's Duty

Child's Needs +0,16

Parent's Needs +0,19

- The school is able to help my child solve problems
- The school helps my child understand the school's values of being Principled, Caring and being an Inquirer

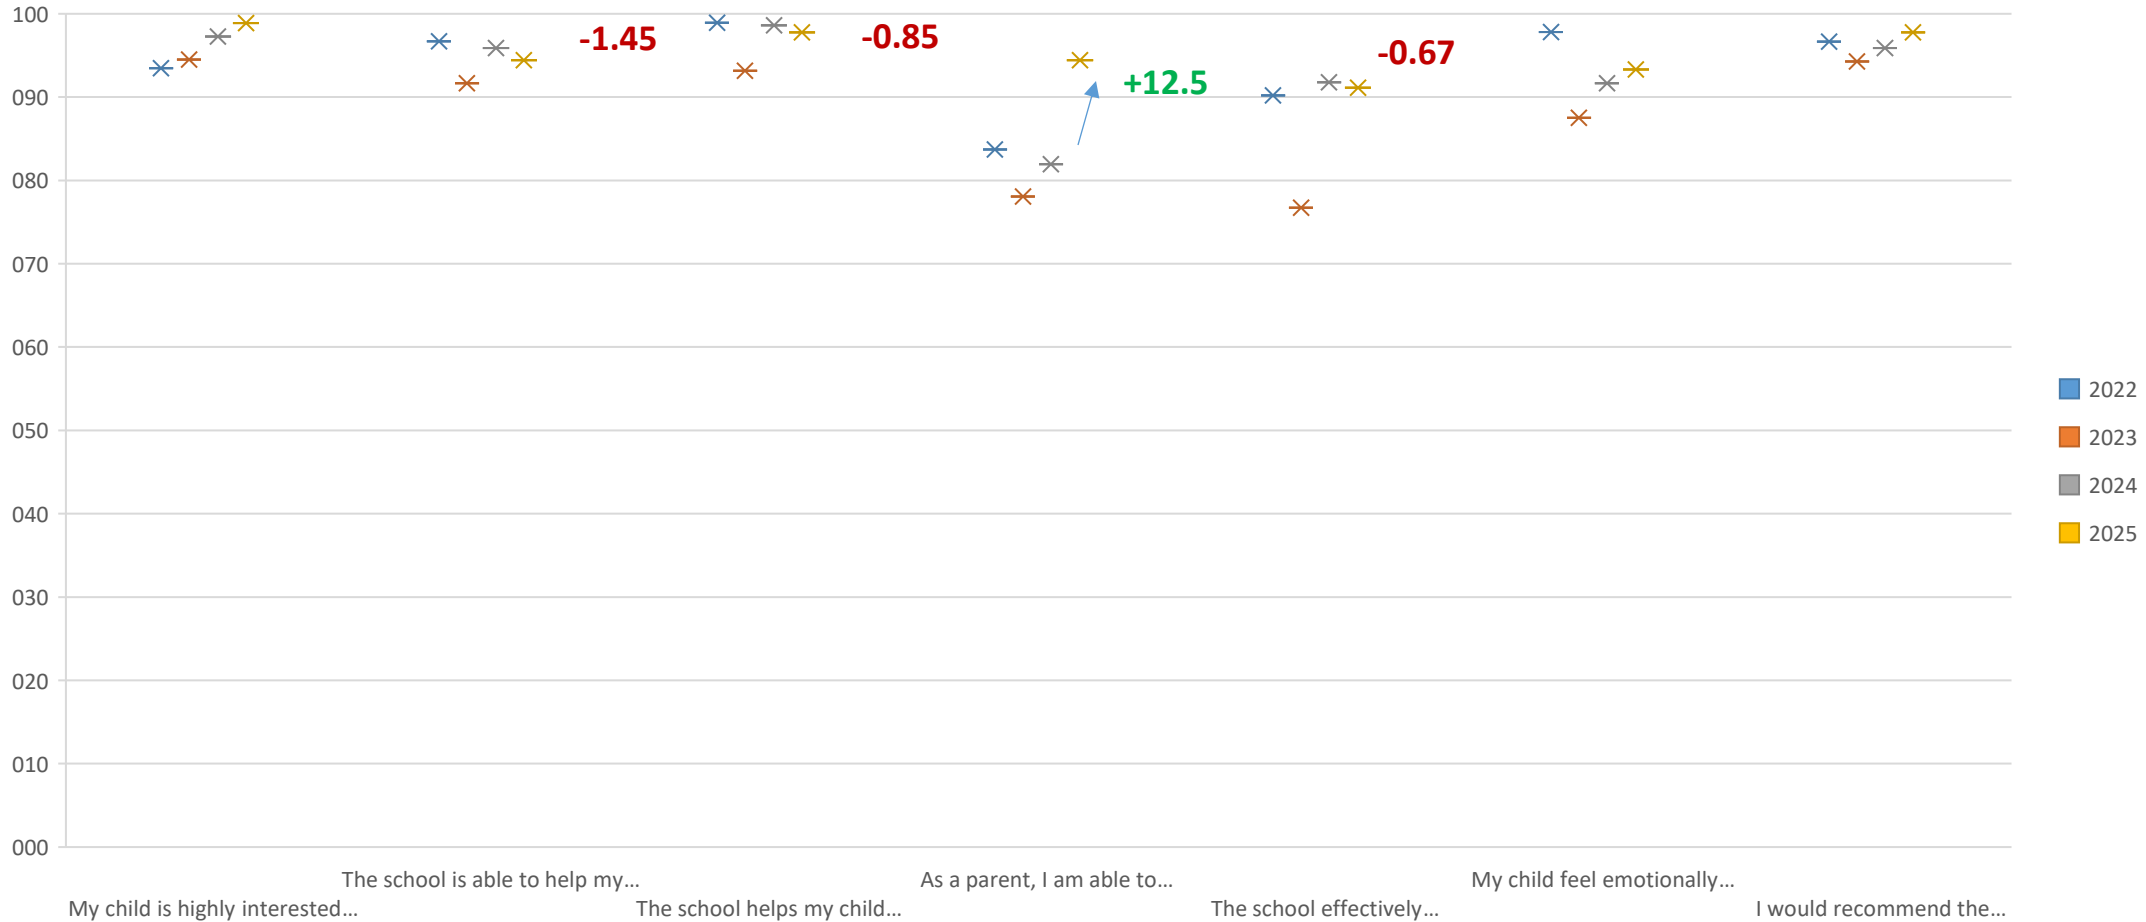

- My child is highly interested in learning
- My child feel emotionally safe whilst at school

- The school effectively communicates with me as a parent
- As a parent, I am able to access my child's learning through Toddle

Do not forget school's duties, as it has a very small increase.

The School made a great improvements in meeting parents and students' needs (+0.19, and +0.16)

Percentages of «Strongly Agree» + «Agree» by year

All the statements have higher percentages (>90) in 2025, which indicates that parents are generally positive about the school.

The biggest leap is in the statement «As a parent, I am able to access my child's learning through Toddle.»

The school should be careful about these points since there is a slight decrease in them:

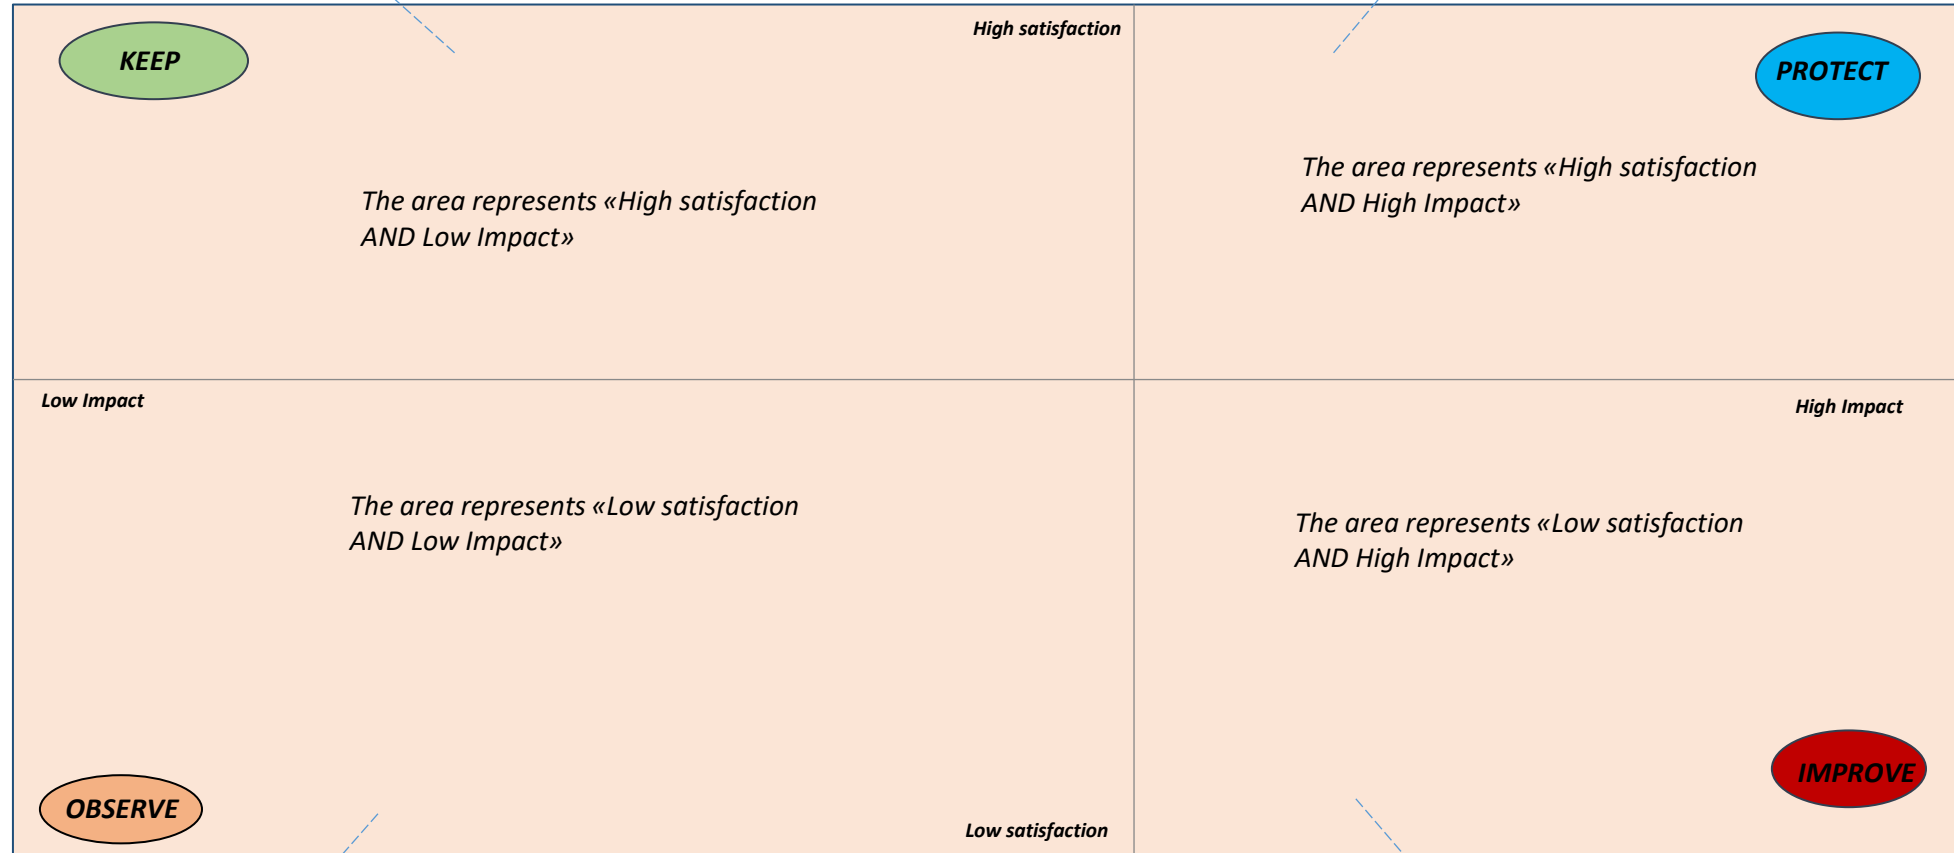

- «The school is able to help my child solve problems»

- «The school helps my child understand the school's values of being Principled, Caring and being an Inquirer»

Impact vs Satisfaction Map-Description

The statements in this area have a low impact on the recommendation rate; however, participants express high satisfaction with them. Therefore, the school should KEEP them as they are.

The statements in this area have a high impact on the recommendation rate, and participants also express high satisfaction with them. Therefore, the school should PROTECT them as they represent the strongest assets of the school.

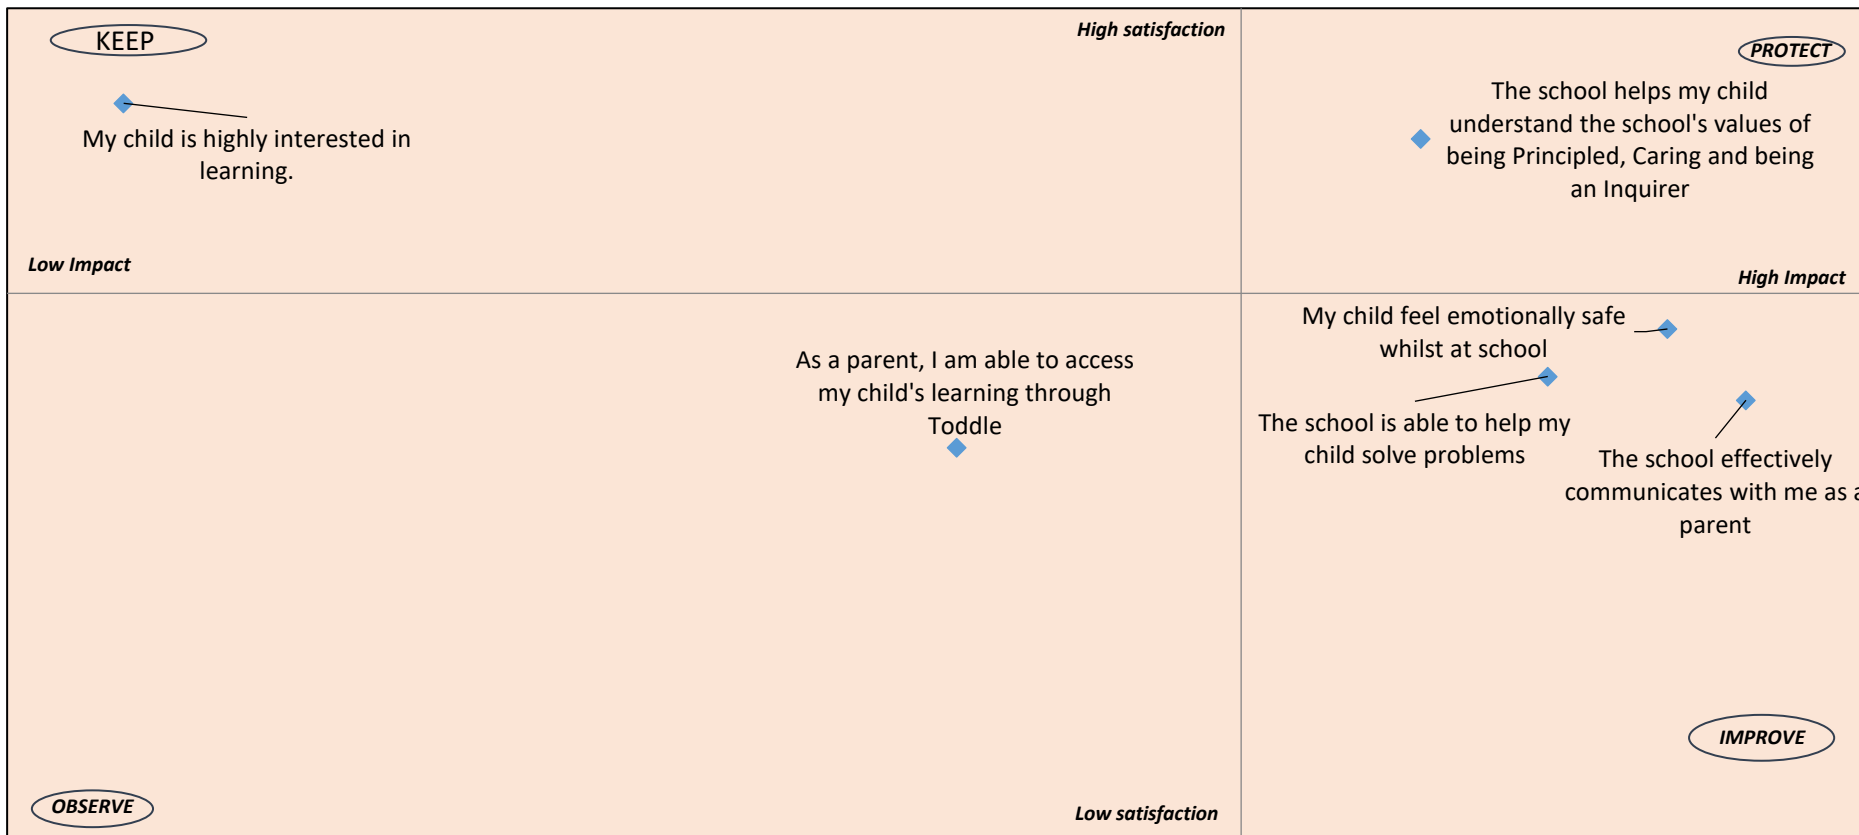

The statements in this area have a low impact on the recommendation rate, and participants express low satisfaction with them. So, the school should OBSERVE the patterns and try to increase satisfaction in this area.

The statements in this area have a high impact on the recommendation rate, yet participants express low satisfaction with them. So, this area represents the highest priority for the school to IMPROVE satisfaction.

Impact vs Satisfaction Map-2025

- ✓ PROTECT the area where the school creates value for the student.
- ✓ KEEP the students' interest high.
- ✓ OBSERVE the experience of parents with Toddle and increase satisfaction in that area.
- ✓ IMPROVE communication with parents.
- ✓ IMPROVE the atmosphere of the school to ensure students feel emotionally safer.

OVERALL

- All the statements have higher percentages (>90) in 2025, which indicates that parents are generally positive about the school. In
- In 2025, the biggest increase occurs in the statement «As a parent, I am able to access my child's learning through Toddle» compare to 2024's result. Congrats! 🎉 This was the main area of improvement!
- The order of the statements in terms of average scores remains consistent over the four years. The highest score is found in the statement «I would recommend the school to other parents,» representing the school's steady success.
- There are positive improvement in all statement. However, in these two statements there is a very small improvement; «My child feel emotionally safe whilst at school», and «The school is able to help my child solve problems».

Observe and improve these points.

- ✓ PROTECT: «The school helps my child understand the school's values of being Principled, Caring and being an Inquirer»
- ✓ KEEP: «My child is highly interested in learning»
- ✓ OBSERVE: «As a parent, I am able to access my child's learning through Toddle»
- ✓ IMPROVE: «The school effectively communicates with me as a parent»
- ✓ IMPROVE: «The school is able to help my child solve problems»
- ✓ IMPROVE: «My child feel emotionally safe whilst at school»